Miscellaneous Policies

- Youth and senior groups will be given special consideration for rental rates, and exceptions will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
- Groups or organizations contributing amounts equal to, or greater than, $10,000 per year to The Center are entitled to a waiver or reduction of room rental fees.
- Groups or organizations wishing to donate proceeds from an event to The Center may be given special consideration. This is done on a case-by-case basis and must be approved in advance of the event by The Center's Chief Executive Officer.
- An event representative must receive all deliveries associated with your event. The Center will not be responsible for receiving deliveries.
- At the conclusion of your rental, all materials (including, but not limited to, lighting, decorations, equipment, food, party rentals) must be removed from The Center's premises. - Use of The Center's likeness, image, or logo in advertisements for your event is prohibited unless you receive prior consent of the CEO.
- Per San Diego fire codes, all exits must be free and clear of equipment, materials and obstructions. There must be at least 6 feet of clear space in front of any exit door, and all exit hallways must be kept clear at all times. ### Making a Reservation

To reserve a room, first verify room availability by phone (619-692-2077), e-mail (roomrentals@thecentersd.org), or in person (3909 Centre Street). We encourage you to make your reservations as far in advance as possible to ensure room availability. Please note that The Center is unable to make a room reservation until the completed room rental contract and appropriate deposit are received. If the event will occur within 30 days or less of the reservation, the full room rental fee will also be required.

Once you have confirmed availability, complete the Room Reservation Form found at the end of this document and return with the appropriate deposit and, if the rental is to occur within 30 days or less of the reservation, the room rental fee to The Center. If you would like to mail your reservation form and deposit, The Center's mailing address is P.O. Box 3357, San Diego CA 92163. If you prefer to hand-deliver your reservation form and deposit, you may do so at our main facility, located at 3909 Centre Street, San Diego CA 92103.

Once we receive your deposit(s) along with a completed Room Reservation Form, we will enter your information into our booking system and send you a confirmation letter within one working day.

Methods of Payment

The Center accepts cash, checks, money orders, or credit cards. The Center accepts Visa, Master Card, Discover and American Express. Deposits will be held by The Center until the event takes place, at which point they will be refunded, minus any charges for damages as described above.

The Center will provide separate receipts for the deposit and for room rental fees.

Cancelation and Refunds

If you need to cancel a reservation, you must provide written notice to The Center. Acceptable forms of written notice include U.S. mail (The Center will use the postmark date as the date of cancelation) or e-mail to roomrentals@thecentersd.org (The Center will use the date of receipt of the e-mail as the cancellation date).

When canceling reservations, the following cancelation and refund policy will apply:

- Full refund if notified more than 30 days prior to event date.
- 50% refund if notification is 3- 4 weeks prior to event date.
- 25% refund if notification is 2 weeks prior to event date.
- There will not be a refund if notification occurs within one week of event.

Please note that The Center will gladly refund the full rental fee if another reservation is made for the same space on the same date and time as the canceled reservation.

In cases of cancelation, deposits will be returned to the event organizer.

Refund of Deposits; Set-Up and Cleaning of Rooms; Costs Incurred for Damage to Premises and/or Equipment

The Center strives to create a clean and sanitary environment for all of its visitors, and we rely upon the many groups and organizations who rent space from us to help maintain that environment. In every room of The Center, there is a diagram of how each room is to be set up between uses. The room must be set up according to the diagram when you leave it, and it must also be free of all trash, food and other materials. In addition, the auditorium floor must be swept and cleaned of any spills and all trash must be taken out to the dumpsters behind the building. Finally, you are responsible for cleaning up any spills on floors and tables, and cleaning materials are available at the front desk for this purpose. For those events that require use of the kitchen, a Kitchen Clean-up Check List will be provided to the event organizer that must be signed off by Center representative at the conclusion of your event. If this check list is not signed off after your event and the kitchen is found not be cleaned according to the specifications on the Kitchen Clean-up Checklist, your cleaning deposit will not be refunded.

If The Center finds a room has not been cleaned and/or set up according to its posted diagram, it will charge the previous renter for cleaning and set up costs. The hourly fee for cleaning and set-up is the same as the hourly rental rate for the room, with a minimum one hour charge. Any cleaning and set-up costs will be charged against the renter's deposit. If, when entering a room, you find that the space is not ready for occupancy, you should notify the front desk immediately.

If your event leads to damage to The Center's facilities and/or its equipment, you will be responsible for the cost of repair and/or replacement, along with staff time as applicable. Generally, these costs will be charged against your deposit. If the costs of repair or replacement exceed your rental deposit, The Center will bill you for the remaining balance.

Policy on Alcohol Use and Entertainment

All alcohol use must be approved in advance by The Center, and The Center reserves the right to deny use of alcohol at any event. In its sole discretion, The Center will determine whether an Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) permit and insurance certificate will be required of the event organizer. Generally, private events where alcohol is free and peripheral to the event do not require an ABC permit or insurance certificate. For all other events, the following requirements must be met:

1. All non-profit and profit organizations are required to obtain a one-day alcohol use permit from Alcohol Beverage Control:

State of California, Department of Alcohol Beverage Control
1350 Front Street, room 5056
San Diego, CA 92101
619- 525-4064.

2. No bottled alcohol may be served.
3. All alcohol must be served with food and water.
4. All non-profit and for-profit organizations are required to obtain an insurance certificate for their event when serving alcohol, naming The San Diego LGBT Community Center as the loss payee.
5. If the event is being catered, the catering company or individual must be licensed to serve alcohol and must provide proof of licensing to The Center prior to the event. A copy of the license will be kept on file with other paperwork pertaining to said event. In addition, the caterer must provide an insurance certificate naming The Center as the loss payee.
6. Absolutely no alcohol served to minors.

In addition, the City of San Diego requires that any event that serves alcohol in conjunction with any entertainment (DJ, Band, fashion show, comedian, etc.) also register their event with the San Diego Police Department Vice Unit. More information can be obtained by calling 531-2435 or 531-2247 asking to speak to Charles or Beth. Proof of registration with the Vice Unit will be required prior to your event.

Policy on Noise Control

The San Diego LGBT Community is located in a residential neighborhood, and out of respect for our neighbors, we have implemented the following policies regarding noise control:

- Set-up and takedown of any event can only occur between 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. All events must conclude by 9:30 p.m. at the latest to provide time for take down and to ensure that all crowds disburse by 10:00 p.m.
- When using the auditorium's sound system, event organizers are responsible for ensuring that volume levels are kept such that the sound system cannot be heard in the alley next to the auditorium. Any request by the neighbors for a reduction in volume must be honored immediately.
- Doors to the north of auditorium (leading to the alley beside the auditorium) must remain closed at all times except when bringing in or removing equipment and/or supplies.

- Event organizers will be responsible for ensuring that guests refrain from loud conversations and unruly behavior within the facility, on our patio, on the sidewalks in front of The Center and in our parking lot.
- Any noise complaints from our neighbors must be addressed immediately. This includes events held in the auditorium and/or parking lot.
- Any fines or citations incurred due to excessive noise will be the sole responsibility of the event organizer, and the event organizer agrees to reimburse The Center for any fines it receives as a result of the organizer's event.
- In the event that law enforcement requires an event to end early due to noise complaints, The Center will comply. When this happens, The Center will not refund any part of the rental fee.

Prohibited Uses

We strive to create a facility in which all members of our community can feel safe and welcomed. In keeping with our mission, the following activities are not allowed on The Center's property:

1. Physically or verbally threatening or harassing any person in any way, including stalking or obsessive following.

3. Engaging in sexual behavior of any kind.
4. Defacing, damaging, or destroying property in any area belonging to the Center, our visitors, or our tenants.
5. Possession, use or sale of illegal substances, weapons, or contraband.
6. Possession or consumption of alcohol outside of a Center-sponsored event, or consumption and/or distribution of alcohol at an event where The Center's prior permission and an alcohol use permit have not been obtained.
7. Soliciting for any purpose, including asking for money, contributions, or donations unless such activities have been approved by the Chief Executive Officer.
8. Assembling for the purpose of disturbing the public peace or committing any unlawful act.
9. Fighting, annoying others through noisy or boisterous activities, or in any way creating a disturbance which is disruptive or dangerous to others, or the business or reputation of The Center.
10. Running, skating, rollerblading, skateboarding, bicycling, or impeding the free flow of pedestrian traffic.
11. Failing to wear reasonably appropriate attire for a community environment that encompasses adults, seniors, families and young children. Shirts and shoes are required at all times when using Center facilities.
12. Bringing animals onto Center property, with the exception of animals trained to assist and accompany physically challenged individuals.
13. Posting or distributing flyers or notices that have not received the prior approval of the San Diego LGBT Community Center.
14. Smoking anywhere on The Center's property except the parking lot or sidewalk in front of The Center.

15. Distribution of alcohol to minors.

The Center will cancel a room reservation if, in its sole discretion, it determines or suspects that the organizers or participants might violate any of the prohibited uses listed above. If, due to violations of this policy, an event is asked to end early, The Center will not refund any part of the rental fee. Rental deposits will be refunded as described above.
