Behavioral Health Services

Funded in part with Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program funds provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to the City of San Diego

The San Diego LGBT Community Center offers a wide selection of services through its Behavioral Health Services programs including LGBTQ individual, couples, family, and group counseling; relationship violence treatment and wellness; assistance for transgender and non-binary persons with transition or exploration of gender identity; community resources and support for those living with HIV/AIDS; and many more targeted services, most with sliding scale and some insurance plans are accepted. Persons living with HIV may potentially qualify to receive no cost counseling services.
