Making a Reservation

To reserve a room, first read this document in its entirety, then complete an online Room Rental Request form (<https://thecentersd.org/room-rentals/>). We encourage you to make your reservations as far in advance as possible to ensure room availability.

After completing the online Room Rental Request form, you will soon receive a room rental availability email/call from a Center staff member including any additional information needed.

From there, complete the Room Rental Contract found at the end of this document and submit the appropriate deposit, and, if the rental is to occur within 30 days or less of the reservation, include the room rental fee and insurance requirement to The Center. If you would like to mail your reservation form and deposit, The Center's mailing address is P.O. Box 3357, San Diego CA 92163. If you prefer to hand-deliver your reservation form and deposit, you may do so at our main facility, located at 3909 Centre Street, San Diego CA 92103.

Please note that The Center is unable to make a room reservation until the online Room Rental Request form is completed, the Room Rental Contract is signed and turned in, and the appropriate deposit and insurance requirement is received. Room rental fees are due 30 days prior to the event. If rental fees are not received 30 days prior to the event, the reservation will be cancelled, and deposit returned. If the event will occur within 30 days or less of the reservation, the full room rental fee will also be required.

On-going or repeating reservations are granted based upon availability; only one deposit will be required and will be kept until the reservation is cancelled.

Once we receive your deposit(s) along with a completed Room Rental Contract, we will enter your information into our booking system and send you a confirmation letter within one to two working days.

For any additional questions, please email hello@thecentersd.org.

Methods of Payment

The Center accepts checks, money orders, or major credit cards (Visa, Master Card, Discover, American Express). Deposits will be held by The Center until the event takes place, at which point they will be refunded, excluding any charges for damages as described below. The Center will provide separate receipts for the deposit and for room rental fees.

Refund of Deposits; Set-Up and Cleaning of Rooms; Costs Incurred for Damage to Premises and/or Equipment

The Center strives to create a clean and sanitary environment for all visitors, and we rely upon the many groups and organizations who rent space from us to help maintain that environment. In every room of The Center, there is a photo of how each room is to be set up between uses. All rooms must be set up according to their perspective photo and must also be free of all trash, food and other materials. In addition, renters are responsible for cleaning of any spills on floors and tables upon event closeout time, cleaning materials are available at the Welcome Desk for this purpose. For Auditorium rentals, the floor must be swept and cleaned of any spills and all trash must be taken out to the dumpsters behind the building. If you are renting the Auditorium Kitchen, a Kitchen Clean-up Check List will be provided to the event organizer that must be signed off by Center representative at the conclusion of your event. If this check list is not signed off after your event and the kitchen is found unclean according to the specifications on the Kitchen Clean-up Checklist, your kitchen cleaning deposit will not be refunded.

If The Center finds a room has not been cleaned and/or set up according to its posted photo, it will charge the previous renter for cleaning and set up costs. The hourly fee for cleaning and set-up is the same as the rental rate for the room, with a minimum rental charge. Any cleaning and set-up costs will be charged against the renter's deposit. If, when entering a room, you find that the space is not ready for occupancy, you should notify the Welcome Services Staff immediately.

If your event leads to damage to The Center's facilities and/or its equipment, you will be responsible for the cost of repair and/or replacement, along with staff time as applicable. Generally, these costs will be charged against your deposit. If the costs of repair or replacement exceed your rental deposit, The Center will bill you for the remaining balance.

Cancelation and Refunds

If you need to cancel a reservation, you must provide written notice to The Center. Acceptable forms of written notice include U.S. mail (The Center will use the postmark date as the date of cancelation) or e-mail to hello@thecentersd.org (The Center will use the date of receipt of the e-mail as the cancellation date).

When canceling reservations, the following cancelation and refund policy will apply:

- Full refund if notified more than 30 days prior to event date.
- 50% refund if notification is 3-4 weeks prior to event date.
- 25% refund if notification is 2 weeks prior to event date.
- There will not be a refund if notification occurs within one week of event.

Please note that The Center will gladly refund the full rental fee if another reservation is made for the same space on the same date and time as the cancelled reservation. In cases of cancelation, deposits will be returned to the event organizer.

Policy on Alcohol Use and Entertainment
